

On 4th March 2010 JT Industrial Waste Management responded to a serious Public Health & Safety hazard of rotten fish in the Vaal Triangle.

One and a half tons of rotten fish was removed in less than five hours.

The rotten fish were disposed at an accredited landfill site within environmental legislation guidelines.

